

Esoteric View of the World: Group Affiliation - Sects

In mainstream media, conversations occur with academically scientific people. Unfortunately, subtle war propaganda methods are creating discord, opening "unnecessary abysses between us loving people" that should not exist. Every individual is responsible for making the best of life and realizing the soul plan, free from the manipulative efforts of TV, newspapers, and other information carriers. As mentioned on the homepage, every person has the task of finding the higher being in SAT-ANA!

In addition to media manipulation and false guru glorification, ESOTERIC GROUPS also exist. If you are not truly connected in feeling, you can be misguided and lack self-reflection, which may lead to losing yourself. Similarly, after academic training and the false righteousness often seen in religious communities, the legal system, pharmacy, and banking operate as the opposite pole to spiritual anarchy.

The following concepts should be highlighted. These can be explored further through several condensed links in the Premium Segment offer:

The following concepts should be mentioned, which can be dealt with very well at any time by the author by means of several condensed links in the Premium Segment offer: Change of essence, also with attempts through CRAVINGS, ENCHANTMENTS & CURSEMENTS that create the appearance or the illusion as if a demon has taken possession of someone, such as the figurative ILLUSTRATION such as spirit attachments see Chabad Luwatschitsch Mafia, Kippträger as an unfree sign of these people, OCCUPATIONS, separation of possessions, work with healing stones, power animals and science fiction is no longer up to date, please believe in UFO's or planetary travel

Fear of confiding in spiritual guides, wrong vegan diets, ADVERTISEMENT with destiny influencing, flesh influencing with light work the explanation of a light body is used to bring back soul parts is very dangerous to mention in this terminology, and when talking about dark energies or where it is about foreign energies that are not real.

Spiritual healers, who then actually distract from the important other findings, subsequently non-functioning applications are rightly insulted as ESOTERICS, this text should make it clear that KOMM, Michael has refrained from this for 17 years and see the first page of his homepage points out that Michael guides, accompanies and supports people! Be it for several months or even just a certain period of life, through phases of life experience and individual, in-depth conversations, of which these should be necessary in person or via video telephony. In the future, more and more compressed healing energy frequency transmissions from the light-filled spirit world will be referred to here. The responsibility with thought READY, about energy flows, diagnosis and treatments to let go and then for technical-naturopathic people who pay small or very large amounts of money and their appreciation, also have long-term healing successes. Do you argue with family discussions where the word conspiracy theory is used?

Delusional adherence to drinking certain quantities or certain qualities of water or using other diets like your partner's?

Continuing to cling to old doctrinal (empty) opinions :-) or even book authors' knowledge that does not distract from today's very rapid possible development in the New Age or can even lead us down the wrong path? Do you still hold on to the idea that there is a God or that there is a globe with divisions of the formations of people and of the true path, that all people are equal, and that all souls ultimately result in God? Then let me tell you that you could be in good hands with me if you are really READY!

English: God makes other people who are desperate and not quite themselves, who could also be described as sleepers, like a dog-dog in this twist into a slave of other people and therefore not quite independent and free-living, and thus disconnect and detach themselves from their own potential without realizing it. It is also worrying when a lot of money or increasing amounts of money are brought into play, and that perhaps later there is a group or a guru who demands this money, or a gypsy who demands all the money you have in cash and demands that a demon or dark powers leave this person in peace! Even if it is fossilized that contact with the outside world must be broken off in order to create peace within oneself. If objects such as crystals, jewelry, or other material offerings exist, this is highly questionable in today's new age and causes blindness in the buyer. If another person is seen as a test to challenge them, or if it is about power and concepts such as dark forces or foreign energies, you are too much on the outside and automatically no longer with yourself or only criticized on the outside.

Even if we are talking about people of people or the person... Dubious providers of products or cult groups or false hope propagating leaders of groups who are still in the old guru consciousness, which is no longer up to date! If there is talk of being able to do everything on your own, then you are splitting yourself off from the community of all people! Even if you are advised to ostracize others....

It's an information war, you only have to understand it once with KOMMERZ, stagings, distortions, bread and games, that's what it's all about. This can be remedied in the future by compressing more reconstructions beyond the 13th, family constellations with representatives or placeholder figures on my practice floor! Remind yourself personally to have a good sexual experience with your partner at least twice a week. Full-body massages are also desirable, with half the dose but still good, to achieve double or triple the speed of development, so that happiness and joy can once again enter a person's life.

Treatment methods such as meditation, acupuncture, working with frequency devices, only conventional medicine therapies without complementary procedures, only operations, only Thai-Ayurveda massages, taking vital substances are also no longer up-to-date from the Soul Path Development VIEW. Having to drink a lot or eat three times a day, having to sleep more than 5 HOURS!

Do you know the widespread belief that cold coffee makes you beautiful? In my human experience, I explain this by saying that many people in the old ruler mode, trying to attract attention and following narcissism patterns or their own lack, waste too much time with many tales and stories as a steam chatterer. After a while, the coffee will get cold. This picture illustrates that some people still want to gloss over or cover up their illness. Think about it.

In the overall cross-section of the current population of the flat earth, soul themes are currently active that are not made conscious with 1000 words, but with explanatory images and must be replaced at times. In this context, please make use of the Osteoko YouTube channel, where currently over 70 videos have been published!

If these explanations that you have read so far are not implemented in this way, then these people who have not done so will undoubtedly become sicker or suffer from more severe symptoms! Negative examples of scaring away money... solution in my practice to the effect that with a €60 start and paying off installments over time, this should be manageable for everyone and their collateral costs!

You DO NOT understand, it is not about our personal things... but I am a mediator from the light-filled spirit world, which presses on the tube so that you and your family members and colleagues dissolve their issues with reconnections and methods of the New Age, where it is only about soul-scene issues of all times before. Explained figuratively, also cinematically, SHE or an everyday figure that you may be looking at is actually a queen who commands at least 300 subordinates (your soul, you reader) and thus, as if remote-controlled, they cannot think for themselves and take personal responsibility.

The former land of poets and thinkers still seems to have too many people who are "denser" than they can think! (maybe drink a lot of alcohol?)

Everything can be tested kinesiologically by me and solved individually on the soul level.

Pets like dogs often give you confirmation through their changed behavior!

From 2025, it is a great grace with my support, whether in person or via remote support, to release a much higher incredible mass of unresolved past lives (incarnations – soul gone into female or male into flesh) of SOUL EXPERIENCES with the word READY.

With the declaration of the premium application segment with willingness to pay from 3,000-7,000 € (thousand = k) are now considered and can be expanded in several months with further channeled (soul messages) tests:

at 3k, 13 reconnections are possible within a time compression of 3 weeks.

INTERMEDIATE LEVELS are individual!

At 7k, 30 reconnections are possible within a time compression of 5 weeks.

Finally, it is communicated that currently on the entire flat earth SOURCE "Nos Confunden", figuratively explained, the soul show stage of all people is a Schumann frequency increase with several dimensions numerically, as of January 2025, at 17!

In general, the number of completed reconnections can be synchronized or even surpassed with regard to the inner soul path development, so that one can figuratively explain "soaring like an eagle above all topics" and cannot be attacked by aging or illness!

I wish you only the very best on all your journeys,

Michael: come with 29 reconnections and 670th vibrational dimension as a role model and chosen one.
